RHODES

Rhodes is where ancient stories, medieval wonders, and soft-gold beaches converge under some of the brightest skies in Greece. Walk the cobbled maze of Rhodes Old Town and get lost in whitewashed Lindos. Lay by turquoise bays made for family days, on the island that blends culture, sunlit ease, and slow-paced Mediterranean living.

MUST-SEE / MUST-DO

- Rhodes Old Town
- Palace of the Grand Master
- Street of the Knights
- Archaeological Museum of Rhodes
- Markets and shops
- Acropolis of Rhodes
- Lindos Picturesque village with whitewashed houses
- Valley of the Butterflies
- Beaches

CORFU

Set in north-western Greece in the Ionian Sea, Corfu is among Europe's top summer islands. With direct flights from major cities to regal Corfu, maximum flight time is 3 hours, making it Greece's easiest access in the summer month.

The entire Old Town is UNESCO listed—one of Europe's largest historic ensembles—paired with fortresses, museums, monasteries, coastal walks and boat excursions.

MUST-SEE / MUST-DO

- Corfu Old Town (UNESCO protected)
- Among Europe's largest preserved historic monuments
- Kanoni & Mouse Island
- Achillion Palace
- Old Fortress
- Byzantine Museum
- Archaeological Museum
- Angelokastro Castle
- Paleokastritsa Monastery
- Walking and trekking tours
- Cruises and excursions
- Themed music events in co-operation with the Ionian University of Music

CHANIA, CRETE

Chania, on Crete's western coast, is one of the Mediterranean's most dynamic destinations. The city combines a lively dining and nightlife scene with a historic centre where Venetian, Ottoman, and Greek architecture coexist. Chania is known for how it can transform according to its audience; families, couples and friends or the adventurous and party people. Beyond the city, dramatic gorges, long sandy beaches, and traditional villages make Chania a starting point for both culture and nature.

MUST-SEE / MUST-DO

- Chania Old Town and Venetian Harbour
- Egyptian Lighthouse and old ship arsenals
- Samaria Gorge
- Falasarna Beach
- Balos Beach
- Elafonisi Beach
- Preveli Beach

ELOUNDA, CRETE

Elounda lies on Crete's northern coast, bordered by peninsulas, beaches, and calm bays. Once a key settlement, it has seen Minoan, Greek, Roman, Byzantine, Venetian, and Ottoman influence. Today, it is known as a cosmopolitan destination while retaining traces of its fishing village origins, with nearby archaeological sites and island excursions adding depth to the area.

MUST-SEE / MUST-DO

- Ancient Elounda (Olous – sunken city)
- Spinalonga Island (recommended by UNESCO)
- Agios Nikolaos and Lake Voulismeni
- Knossos Palace, the largest Bronze Age site in Crete
- Elounda and Plaka beaches
- Kolokytha Beach
- Traditional villages and tavernas
- Museums and churches

PAXOS

Paxos, south of Corfu in the Ionian Sea, is a small island known for olive groves, stone villages, and a rugged western coastline with cliffs and sea caves. It has no large resorts, preserving a low-key character. The main towns are Gaios, Lakka, and Loggos, with Antipaxos nearby for day trips and beaches.

MUST-SEE / MUST-DO

- Gaios harbour and waterfront
- Lakka natural harbour and beaches
- Loggos village and seafront tavernas
- Tripitos Arch
- Eremitis Beach and Blue Caves
- Day trip to Antipaxos (Vrika and Voutoumi beaches)
- Hiking through olive groves and trails
- Local churches and monuments
- Sunset views from the west coast cliffs

HALKIDIKI – KASSANDRA PENINSULA

Kassandra, the first peninsula of Halkidiki, combines long sandy beaches, pine-covered hills, and lively seaside towns. Just an hour from Thessaloniki, it is the most accessible part of Halkidiki and balances beach clubs with traditional villages. The area offers both relaxed summer holidays and opportunities to explore local culture, history, and landscapes.

MUST-SEE / MUST-DO

- Temple of Ammon Zeus
- Afytos village with stone houses and clifftop views
- Possidi Cape and lighthouse
- Byzantine Tower of Nea Fokea
- Chanioti village and beach
- Local wineries and wine-tasting tours
- Glarokavos, Kanistro, and hidden coves
- Beach bars along the Kassandra coast
- Scenic walks and sunset viewpoints over the Aegean

MILOS

Milos, in the southwestern Cyclades, is shaped by volcanic geology that has created striking coastlines and beaches. The island combines unusual rock formations with small fishing villages, archaeological sites, and museums. Its varied landscapes, from white cliffs to colourful settlements, make it one of the most distinctive islands in the Aegean.

MUST-SEE / MUST-DO

- Philakopi prehistoric site
- Plaka village with castle and sunset views
- Klima fishing village with colourful houses
- Sarakiniko Beach and volcanic rock formations
- Ancient Theatre of Milos
- Archaeological Museum
- Mining Museum
- Church Museum

SANTORINI

Santorini, in the southern Cyclades, is defined by its volcanic caldera, dramatic cliffs, and villages with whitewashed houses overlooking the sea. The island combines archaeological sites, distinctive beaches, and a strong cultural identity. Its sunsets, historic settlements, and coastal landscapes make it one of the most recognisable destinations in the Mediterranean.

MUST-SEE / MUST-DO

- Oia village and sunset views
- Imerovigli cliffside village
- Fira, the island's capital
- Ancient Thera archaeological site
- Akrotiri prehistoric settlement
- Pyrgos traditional village
- Megalochori village
- Red Beach
- Black Beach (Perissa, Perivolos)
- Caldera Beach and cliffside walks

ATHENS

Athens, the capital of Greece, is a captivating blend of ancient glory and modern energy. Beyond the iconic Acropolis, the city brims with world-class museums, archaeological treasures, and diverse neighborhoods - from the historic Plaka and vibrant Monastiraki to the chic Athens Riviera. With award-winning gastronomy, a lively nightlife, cutting-edge fashion, and authentic local charm, Athens is a city that never ceases to inspire. Dynamic and ever-evolving, it also serves as the gateway to Greece's islands and mainland escapes by road, air, or sea.

MUST-SEE / MUST-DO

- Acropolis and Parthenon
- Museums and archaeological sites
- Ancient Agora
- Temple of Poseidon at Cape Sounion
- Plaka district with historic streets
- Monastiraki Flea Market
- Agora Market
- Glyfada seaside district
- Voula and Vouliagmeni coastal areas
- Shopping and nightlife districts

ZANTE (ZAKYNTHOS)

Zante, in the Ionian Sea, is an island of natural significance, home to the protected Caretta Caretta sea turtle and Mediterranean monk seal. Its coastline combines sandy beaches, dramatic cliffs, and sea caves, while the main town retains Venetian and Byzantine influences. Zante offers both striking landscapes and a rich ecological environment.

MUST-SEE / MUST-DO

- Navagio Beach (Shipwreck Cove)
- Venetian Castle of Zakynthos Town
- Byzantine Museum
- Blue Caves
- Keri Caves
- National Marine Park

ALGARVE

The Algarve, Portugal's sun-drenched southern coastline, boasts over 300 days of sunshine each year and a captivating mix of nature, luxury, and adventure. At its heart, Vilamoura blends a world-class marina, championship golf courses, fine dining, and upscale shopping with vibrant nightlife and yachting. Beyond its cosmopolitan charm, the region reveals pristine beaches, dramatic cliffs, and protected parks teeming with wildlife - ideal for birdwatching, whale watching, or simply basking in the year-round warmth of the Atlantic breeze.

MUST-SEE / MUST-DO

- Vilamoura Marina and resort district
- Praia da Falésia beach
- Ria Formosa Environmental Park
- Cerro da Vila Roman ruins
- Championship golf courses
- Whale & birdwatching excursions
- Benagil Caves boat tour
- Exclusive yacht & beach barbecue cruises

TENERIFE

From dramatic volcanic landscapes and Atlantic coastlines to lively towns, local markets, and refined dining, Tenerife is a destination defined by contrast and balance. With year-round sunshine, diverse outdoor activities, and easy access to both mountain and sea, the island offers a lifestyle that moves effortlessly between nature, culture, and contemporary living, making it one of Europe's most complete island destinations.

MUST-SEE / MUST-DO

- Mount Teide National Park: A UNESCO site and Spain's highest peak.
- Masca Valley: Often called the "Machu Picchu of the Canaries."
- Los Gigantes Cliffs: Massive basalt walls that plunge 600m into the Atlantic.
- Anaga Rural Park: An ancient laurel forest that feels like a prehistoric jungle.
- San Cristobal de La Laguna: A colorful colonial city and UNESCO World Heritage site.
- Garachico: A town partially destroyed by lava in 1706.
- Playa de las Americas beach
- Playa de las Teresitas beach
- Benijo beach
- La Orotava town
- La Laguna town
